Intergroup Opens New Office/Bookstore

At long last Nature Coast Intergroup has acquired a suitable rental space for its first Office/Bookstore, located in Room 308 at the Masonic Building at 111 W. Main and 95 S. Pine, Inverness (across from Stumpknockers). Move-in date is set for June 1. Grand Opening will be announced. The office size is 234 square feet which will accommodate space for a desk, chairs, and computer (all donated); also a display case (purchased), work table (to be purchased), and book shelves (volunteers need to construct). Office hours are planned to be Tuesday through Friday 9:30 am to 3:30 pm and tentatively Saturday 9:30 am to noon. Volunteers are needed to help with setup and running of the office. Call Toni T. 382-7578.

The following passages were written by John, Jackie's brother, about a year prior to his death during a clean and sober period. Taunted by his demons John's life was shortened at the young age of 57 from cancer accelerated by complications related to bouts of active alcoholism and drug addiction.

A few of us may have heard Jackie read these passages at a number of meetings over the past year or so. A friend who heard it was so deeply touched she obtained a copy and passed it on to the Journal. With Jackie's permission John's words are reproduced here so the rest of us could gain from his thoughts and experience. Thank you Jackie sharing this with our Fellowship.

Daddy

Today I awake and as everyday for the past two years and six months and seven days, I lie in bed preparing my defenses for today's battle. I ask Daddy (my Higher Power) to be with me today.

To give me strength, courage, and wisdom, and so much more. Daddy is truly my only defense against this battle that rages everyday.

Then I check out my weapons. First I read my reflection for the day, I say my Serenity Prayer, and I get my Big Book out (which is always close at hand). Then I check out the A.A. meetings for the day wondering how many I may have to retreat to before this day of fighting is over. Now I am ready for the battle to begin!

My enemy: myself. My attackers are cunning, baffling, and powerful. I know today in this battle there will be many wounded, some fatal casualties, but as in every battle the wounded and the dead did their part their

The Spiritual Angle

How often do we sit in A.A. meetings and hear the speaker declare, "But I haven't yet got the spiritual angle." Prior to this statement, he has described a miracle of transformation which has occurred in him - not only his release from alcohol, but a complete change in his whole attitude toward life and the living of it.

It is apparent to everyone else present that he has received a great gift, and that this gift is all out of proportion to anything that may be expected from simple A.A. participation. So we in the audience smile and say to ourselves, "Well, that guy is just reeking with the spiritual angle - except that he doesn't seem to know it yet!"

The Way Out

A drunk fell into a hole and couldn't get out. A businessman went by and the drunk called out for help. The businessman threw him some money and told him to get himself a ladder, but the drunk could not find a ladder in the hole he was in.

A doctor walked by and the drunk said, "Help, I can't get out." The doctor gave him some drugs and said, "Take these; they will relieve the pain." The drunk said, "Thanks", but when the pills ran out he was still in the hole.

A renowned psychiatrist rode by and heard the drunk crying for help. He stopped and said, "How did you get there? Were you born there? Were you put there by your parents? Tell me about yourself; it will alleviate your sense of loneliness." So the drunk talked with him for an hour. Then the psychiatrist had to leave, but he said he'd be back next week. The drunk thanked him, but he was still in the hole.

A priest came by and the drunk called for help. The priest gave him a Bible and said, "I'll pray for you." He got down on his knees and prayed for the drunk, then left. The drunk was very grateful. He read the Bible, but he was still in the hole.

A recovered alcoholic happened to be passing by and the drunk cried out, "Hey, help me; I'm stuck in this hole." Right away, the recovered alcoholic jumped into the hole with him. The drunk said, "What are you doing? Now we're both stuck in this hole." But the recovered alcoholic said, "That's okay, I've been there before, I know the way out."

Let's Get to Work

So much that made us alcoholic lives on in us unresolved, festering, recurring in the same old patterns, expressing itself in emotional binges, intolerance, negativity, self-righteousness, self-pity, and worse. It's almost as though the program says, "Okay, you've got the poison out of your system, now let's get to work on what caused you to reach for it." That's what the Steps are for. best. They are not forgotten. They help the rest of the warriors to live, to be able to fight another day.

As in every battle there are the heroes who fought outstandingly and some helped to save a life. They went beyond the realm of human tolerance and found the power to achieve some great feat.

Some days we must retreat to the Great Council Room more than others. The wounded, the heroes and some warriors who have just started today to fight, gather to discuss the Day's Battle, share stories of past battles won and lost! Gaining strength and courage armed with our Big Book.

Today's Battle has come to an end. I close my eyes to rest today. I was victorious.

I thank Daddy for the Victor E.
